Consequently, institutions may only employ individuals into temporary positions when the function of the position is expected to require less than nine (9) consecutive months of employment (regardless of hours worked per week) to equal the full-time equivalency of the position.

3.2. Classified employees who are employed in less than twelve-month positions and who meet the minimum qualifications of a position shall be provided with an opportunity to accept part-time or full-time summer employment before new persons shall be hired for those positions.

§135-39-4. Work Schedules.

4.1. Each institution shall establish a policy, with the advice and assistance of staff council and other groups representing classified employees, which shall: address any institution-specific procedures concerning the use of flexible work schedules, job sharing, and four-day work weeks; discourage temporary, non-emergency changes in an employees work schedule; and provide a mechanism for changes in, and notification of, changes in work schedules. This policy shall also provide that, where possible, the institution shall provide the employee with a fifteen (15) day notice of such changes. Institutions shall develop such policies within 90-days of the effective date of this rule.

§135-39-5. Appointment or Promotion.

5.1. Pursuant to W.Va. Code 18B-7-1(d), non-exempt classified employees who apply for and meet the minimum qualifications as determined by the institutional human resources director or other designee of the president for a posted non-exempt position within an institution and are currently employed at the institution shall be hired into the posted position prior to hiring someone from outside the institution.

5.2. If more than one qualified, non-exempt classified employee applies, the best- qualified non-exempt classified employee shall be awarded the position. In such cases, if the employees are equally qualified, the employee with the greatest amount of continuous seniority at the institution shall be awarded the position. A random selection method such as drawing of lots, rolling dice, or selection of playing cards shall be utilized if two or more employees have equal qualifications and seniority. Such method shall be mutually agreed upon by the affected employees and approved by the President or her/his designee. If the employees cannot agree on a random selection method, the President of the institution shall use the drawing of lots to determine rankings.

5.3. Provisions of this section shall not apply to casual, temporary and student employees, nor shall they apply to exempt positions.

5.4. Pursuant to W. Va. Code 18B-7-1d, the provisions of this section shall not take precedence over the mandates in an institutions affirmative action plan adopted pursuant to the provisions of Executive Order 11246 or pursuant to any other federal or state requirement. In no event shall an institutions affirmative action plan require the use of quotas to meet its affirmative action goals or require the hiring of an unqualified person for any non-exempt position.

7.2. A written agreement between the employee and the institution shall exist when the employee chooses compensatory time off in lieu of overtime pay. The written agreement may be modified at the request of either the employee or employer at any time but under no circumstances shall a change in the agreement deny the employee compensatory time heretofore acquired.

7.3. Within 60 days of passage of this rule, institutions shall develop an agreement form for compensatory time accumulation in lieu of overtime payment and shall specify the required approval process which must be completed before a non-exempt employee may work beyond 37 1/2 hours.

7.7. Should an individual's employment be terminated, any unused compensatory time shall be reimbursed as follows:

7.7.1. The average regular rate received by such employee during the first three years of the employee's employment; or,
